

Art Therapist/Counsellor – Art & Play Program

Work Type: Part Time
Location: Victoria Park
Closing Date: 5pm – Wednesday March 28, 2017

Holyoake is an innovative and growing organisation that provides counselling and support services to all members of families affected by alcohol and other drug use.

About the role:

The Victoria Park clinical team is seeking an experienced Art Therapist/Counsellor for our Art and Play Program. This program engages children and parents impacted by Alcohol and/or Other Drug (AOD) use. Our counsellors incorporate art and play based activities to build attachment between parent and child, strengthening and building secure parent-child relationships. Additional individual counselling is provided on a needs basis to provide parenting support to those engaged in the program. This is a rare and unique opportunity for a qualified Art Therapist.

The position consists of:

- working with children and families
- outreach work
- using art and play materials
